S.O. 2179.—In pursuance of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947 (14 of 1947), the Central Government hereby publishes the following award of the Arbitrator in the industrial dispute between the Bombay Port Trust and their workmen.

ARBITRATION No. 2 OF 1959

In the matter of the disputes.

BETWEEN

The Trustees of the Port of Bombay.

AND

The workmen of the Trustees of the Port of Bombay belonging to the establishments of the Bombay Port Trust set out below and represented by the Bombay Port Trust Railwaymen's Union.

PRESENT:

Sirri F. Jeejeebhoy, Arbitrator.

APPEARANCES:

For the Trustees of the Port of Bombay—S. D. Nariman, Legal Adviser for the employers.

For the employee—D. S. Nargolkar, Advocate with G. H. Kale, General Secretary.

AWARD

I have not been able to spare the time for this arbitration, but by request of parties I have taken up one item of the matters referred to me for arbitration in these proceedings, and that is claim No. 27 which reads as follows:—

"That a liberalised policy (condonation of time-bar) should be followed in the matter of requests from the staff for change of their recorded dates of birth which were incorrect in cases such as that of Shri L. H. Mayekar, Assistant Station Master."

I am not determining in this arbitration the particular case of Shri L. H. Mayekar because it has not been referred to me; I am dealing with the general question of policy which is raised by this issue.

The facts are shortly these: The union moved the Port Trust to make provision for the cases of those persons whose ages were later found to be wrong as recorded in the books of the Port Trust. It was a question of policy, and the Port Trust after due consideration adopted the recommendation of the Chairman of the Port Trust which was in following terms:

- "(a) Every employee in Port Trust service at present should be informed in writing of his date of birth as recorded in his service book or Enlistment Card and informed that if he wishes to challenge this date, he must do so within a period of three months with proper documentary evidence. No representation will be entertained after the lapse of the above period. Dock labourers were given a similar opportunity some time ago and these will not get this further chance.
- (b) as regards future recruits, scheduled and non-scheduled, the following procedure should be followed. At the time of recruitment, the employee should be asked to state his Date of Birth. If he is unable to do so and merely says that he is so many years of age, this should be noted and the medical officer asked not merely to certify to the physical fitness of the recruit but also to assess and state his age, from which the birth-date can be worked out according to the existing practice. The date so recorded should be intimated in writing to the employee and he should be allowed to challenge it within a period of 3 months, with documentary evidence.

If the employee states a definite date as his date of birth, this should be noted and he should be asked to produce documentary evidence in support of it within 3 months. If he fails to do so or if the documentary evidence is not satisfactory, he should be sent to the medical officer for an assessment of his age and the Birth-Date so worked out will be final."

A certain degree of rigidity has been found in the application of the above formula, for there might be cases of persons so unfortunately placed that they had no specific knowledge of their date of birth and such knowledge was not available to them or the date of birth could not be traced with reasonable diligence at the time that it was recorded or fixed in accordance with the above formula. The parties have approached this problem in a spirit of investigation, and they agree to an additional clause to the formula:—

“(c) An employee may however make an application for rectification of the date of birth as recorded aforesaid in the records of the Port Trust and the Port Trust may grant such applications if—

- (i) he produces fresh evidence to the satisfaction of the Port Trust to establish that the date of birth so recorded as aforesaid is erroneous;
- (ii) he satisfies the Port Trust that he was making the application within three weeks of his becoming aware of such fresh evidence;
- (iii) he satisfies the Port Trust that the fresh evidence was not previously within his knowledge or available to him notwithstanding the exercise of due diligence.”

It is agreed that any pending applications like that of Shri L. H. Mayekar, and those rejected on the plea of time-bar, shall be considered on the basis of this additional paragraph to the formula, but not the cases of those who are not today in the service of the Port Trust.

This agreement of the parties has been effected with my collaboration and I accept it and make this award accordingly.

The 10th September, 1958.

(Sd.) F. JEEJEEBHROY, Arbitrator.
